TASTING NOTES

2006 CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Appellation: Sierra Foothills, El Dorado County
Blend: 76% Cabernet Sauvignon, 19% Cabernet Franc
5% Syrah
Bottling Date: July 15, 2008
Cases Produced: 131
Alcohol: 14.7%

This wine consists of 76% Cabernet Sauvignon grown in El Dorado County, 19% Cabernet Franc from the estate, and 5% Syrah. The Syrah is a combination of grapes from El Dorado County (79%) and from the estate (21%). It was blended to be approachable at an early age, and will only improve with time.

The Cabernet Franc and Syrah add complex aromas as well as soft fruit and improved mouth feel. Subtle anise and clove notes.
