The 2006 "Ensemble," a GSM Rhone blend, consists of 60% Grenache grown on the estate, 25% Mourvedre grown on the estate and 15% Syrah. The Syrah is a combination of grapes from El Dorado County (79%) and from the estate (21%).

This wine, crafted by winemaker David Fenech, accentuates the terroir of the estate vineyards. Wrapping the complex mineral components of the Grenache with leather, violet and cigar tobacco aromas of Mourvedre, is a plush combination of cherries, plum, strawberry and ripe fig. Vanilla and warm mocha combine with oak components in a long silky sweet and earthy finish with black tea and meat juice notes.
