Blend: 100% Aglianico
Harvest Date: October 29, 2007
Bottling Date: July 10, 2009
Barrel Aging: French Oak, 50% New, 18 months
Cases Produced: 46
Alcohol: 14.2%

The smallest of our Estate vineyards produces this powerful but elegant noble wine of Italy. More refined than the 2006, this wine will age gracefully for years, but should be tasted very soon to insure you have an opportunity to cellar some of this extraordinary wine.

Firm tannins, with earthy aromas of blueberry and dried flowers, bright cherry flavors, and long lasting bright acidity.

This wine should accompany special meals for years to come.
